The map illustrates the extensive rail network in the Kansai region, centered on Osaka. Major lines radiating from Osaka include the Osaka Metro, Hankyu Railway, Hanshin Electric Railway, Kintetsu Railway, and Nankai Electric Railway. Other significant lines include the Arashiyama, Minoh, and Sakai Lines. The map also shows connections to major cities like Kobe, Kyoto, Nagoya, Nara, Mie, and Wakayama. Key lines include the Osaka Metro, Hankyu Railway, Hanshin Electric Railway, Kintetsu Railway, Nankai Electric Railway, and various regional lines like the Arashiyama, Minoh, and Sakai Lines. The map also highlights the Osaka Bay, Lake Biwa, and Awaji Island. A legend in the top left corner explains the color coding for different rail systems and symbols for station types. The date (April 1, 2026) is noted at the bottom of the legend.
